What does the question mean? In asking about the origins of human language, we first have to make clear what the question is. The question is not how languages gradually developed over time into the languages of the world today. Rather, it is how the human species developed over time so that we â€™ and not our closest relatives, the chimpanzees ... How did language begin? - Linguistic Society of America - Language Maps ... languages are the result of a long â€™natural history,â€™ which began with a single first language spoken in Africa. As human populations migrated to new places on the planet, each groupâ€™s version of the language changed in different ways, until there were several languages where there was once one. Eventually, there were thousands.
